

RENEWABLE FUELS NEBRASKA

Ethanol: The Right Fuel, Right Now

JOIN NOW!

Renewable Fuels Nebraska (RFN) is the trade organization for Nebraska's ethanol industry. RFN serves as an industry resource encouraging public policy that ensures the growth and expansion of the nation's second largest renewable fuels industry.

Advocacy

RFN advocates on behalf of the ethanol industry both on the local and national level, allowing members to focus on what is important to them - their day-to-day business operations.

Networking

Associate membership allows exclusive access to RFN Producer Members and networking opportunities, and invitation to RFN quarterly board meetings, the annual legislative dinner/reception, and other special events.

Recognition

RFN associate members are recognized frequently in newsletters, through social media highlights, a presence on the RFN website, and the opportunity to participate in RFN committee meetings and events.
